

Abstract

Fruits are frozen in a process wherein i) fruits are cooled then ii) fruits are under-cooled fruits to a temperature between -6 C and 5 -15 C then iii) the temperature is further reduced until ice formation occurs.